

Action taken report of feedback from the Students for Session 2021-22

As per the feedback received from the students, they seem very much satisfied by the course content, the teaching methodology and the practical training imparted in the Department. The suggestions of students are always considered while updating the curriculum by the faculty and it shows in the satisfaction level expressed by the students and the good placement opportunities received by the M.Sc. Students.