

Action taken report of feedback from the Teachers for Session 2021-22

The faculty of the Department appreciates the teaching and research environment provided by the Department and the University. The faculty members of their own also make efforts to update their knowledge and improve the teaching skills keeping in view the suggestions from different quarters. The faculty members have given a very good ranking to the Department as a whole.