

All the teachers have given Very Good to Excellent ranking to the curriculum and the syllabi being followed in the Department. The teachers acknowledge that present teaching has really added to their vision and given them ample opportunities to suggest new contents for further progress of the students and the department. All the teachers are also making efforts to have good interaction with all the students and to the slow learners as well. The Department of Statistics is making constant efforts to reach excellent level in teaching and research.